Mmmmmmmmmm Numb. 5847

The Daily Courant.

Monday, July 18. 1720.

London, July 18.

On Saturday arrived a Mail from France, and another from Holland.

From the Gazette a-la-Main.

Paris, July 14.

IN order to prevent such Disorders as happened at the Bank on the 17th Instant, the Government have sent for 45000 Men to come into the Neighbourhood of this City; on the 19th in the Evening, 6 Batallions of the Regiments Champagne, la Vieille Marine, and Pons, with a Regiment of Dragoons, arrived in the Plain of Charenton, 2 Leagues from hence, where they encamp, and are to be soon followed by the other Forces: Strict Orders have been sent to them not to come into this City, even not the Officers. On the 21st at 3 in the Morning, the Mousquetaires, the Life-Guards, the French and Swiss Guards, with those of the Marshalsea, were in Arms, and a strong Detachment of them was sent to the Palais, to hinder the Parliament from assembling there, and at the same time Lettres de Cachet were dispatched to the Presidents and Councellours ordering them to repair to Pont-Oyse in 48 Hours time, which they obeyed, and are to hold their Assemblies there in the Monastery of the Franciscan Fryars: The Reason of their being sent thither is reported to be their refusing to register an Edict, according to which the India Company oblige themselves to call in Bank Bills to the Value of 600 Millions within a Twelve-month, and their pretending to be informed with what Fund the said Company would call them in, there being a current Report, that 900 Millions of new Actions were to be created to this End. M. Law has not stirred out of the Palais Royal ever since the Affair of the 17th Instant; on the 22d he appeared at a Play which was acted there on the Theatre of the Opera, being placed on the Regent's Side in the same Box with his Royal Highness.

Hamburg, July 19. A Company of Insurance having lately been set on Foot here by several private Persons, the Capital Stock of 8 Millions of Marks was filled up in a Week's Time. Several eminent Merchants who had no Shares in it, and were unwilling to buy them at a high Advance, desired the Proprietors of the said Company to raise an additional Stock of 2 or 4 Millions more, which being refused, they met Yesterday at Mercers Hall, being 25 in Number, and after some Deliberations, subscribed 5 Millions for a new Company of Insurance; then the Doors being set open, Numbers of People thronged in, and in a little time 12 Millions were subscribed, which being thought too large a Sum, some of the Subscribers were dismissed again. Then they fell to buying and selling with such Eagerness, that the Shares would soon have been up to 1000 Marks for the 100, had not the Magistrates who were informed that there was a third Company in Embryo, put a sudden Stop to this Commerce, by an Ordinance which was affixed in all the Parts of the Town, and inserted in the News Papers in the following Terms.

WHereas the Council of this City have been informed to their great Surprize and Displeasure, that some private Persons on Pretence of a Company of Assurance, have of their own Authority presumed to occasion and begin a Commerce of Actions, as it is called; and it being to be apprehended, that many dangerous Consequences, highly prejudicial to the Publick as well as private Persons, will ensue; the Council, pursuant to the Duty incumbent on their Magistracy, could not quietly look on, but were necessitated hereby entirely to forbid all such Action-Commerce, and to forewarn all who meddle with it, that they shall not thereby be entitled to any Right or Action at Law, but must expect that the Contracts they have made, shall be entirely made void and annulled. And the Brokers are hereby strictly charged, on Pain of losing their Function, and of Arbitrary Punishment, to abstain from all Brokage with such Actions. Whereby every one ought to regulate himself, and avoid Danger and Punishment. Actum et decretum in Senatu, publicatumque sub Signeto Die 19 Julii, Anno 1720.
